July, 2023
A Letter from Pastor Hansen

In the hallway outside my office, positioned between the photos of the Rev. Herbert Harris and the Rev. Walter Calvert, is the picture of a Rev. Lillian Herrick Chapman. She served here as the acting pastor at a time when the Presbyterian Church did not ordain women as deacons, elders, or pastors.

It could not have been easy for her. She was an acting pastor of a congregation in a denomination that (wrongly) deemed her gender as disqualifying her from ordained ministry. Married, she was the mother of a 3 or 4-year-old son, at a time when she would have been expected to stay at home.

The Rev. Chapman was here from July 21, 1918, until the summer of 1919 when the Rev. Harris returned from his time in France with the YMCA, during World War I. While here, she presided over the Lord's Supper at least once. She also moderated a Session meeting at least once. She presided over at least one baptism. Church membership increased during her short tenure.

However, her gender was used to restrict what she could and could not do as the pastor. An elder on Session acted as the moderator for most of the meetings. The records show that there were Session meetings held in private homes where she was not listed as being present. When she arrived, the Session decided that instead of celebrating the Lord's Supper twice a month, which was their practice and custom, it would be celebrated once every three months.

Even as difficult as it was, she was also beloved and respected. After Rev. Harris announced his departure in 1920, the committee tasked with finding an interim unanimously recommended Rev. Chapman be hired as an interim pastor. However, the Session rejected the recommendation. What changed? After Rev. Harris departed, the presbytery followed our polity and appointed an ordained minister as the Session's moderator. More than likely, the new moderator made it clear that Rev. Chapman was not acceptable due to her gender. The Session's decision to reject the recommendation was not unanimous because the next motion taken up was a motion to make the prior vote unanimous.

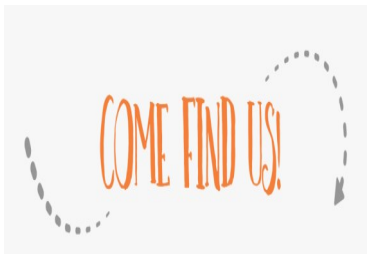

Rev. Chapman's story does not end there. Later, she was ordained as a minister by Congregationalists. She went on to serve as the pastor at the First Presbyterian Church in Big Flats for a number of years. Next year, I plan to take some of my study leave to go to the Hollis Archives at Harvard to study her papers and sermons.

The story of Rev. Chapman testifies to what happens when we follow the lead of the Spirit and take a risk. Her hiring as the acting pastor and later the recommendation to hire her again went against Presbyterian polity and the cultural and societal expectations of the time. And yet, despite all that, this congregation and others recognized that she was called by the Spirit to preach, teach, and administer the Sacraments.

We are called to support and to encourage the Lillian Chapmans of the world. What she did was not easy; nor was it easy for those who supported her to go against what was considered to be decent and orderly at the time. The Holy Spirit very rarely tells us to stay "inside the box." We are to follow the lead of the Spirit and to take risks. For, our God is a Living, Moving God, who does not maintain or respect the status quo, but takes us to places we never thought we or anyone else would go, and where we find life abundant.

Warmly in Christ,

Pastor Evan

Bible

What is the Bible?

The Bible is a collection of 66 individual books that together tell the story of a group of people bound by a common faith in God. It is divided into two main sections: the Old Testament containing 39 books originally written primarily in Hebrew and the New Testament containing 27 books originally written primarily in Greek. For Presbyterians and others of the Reformed tradition the Bible is the means by which Christian believers come to understand how God has been present with humanity since the beginning of time and is present in our world today. By studying the scriptures we can begin to know of God's faithfulness, constant love and eternal goodness.

Testaments

The Old Testament tells the story of God's covenant with the Hebrew people. It is regarded as sacred scripture by both Jews and Christians.

The New Testament contains four accounts of the life, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, the account of the earliest Christian churches and other writings from the early Christian era. It is considered sacred scripture by Christians.

Translations

The Bible has been translated from its original languages into the languages of people throughout the world. Important early translations into English were made by colleagues of John Wycliffe in the late 14th century. Additional translations were published in the decades that followed, culminating in publication of the King James Version (KJV) of the Bible in 1611, commissioned by the king, James I. That translation was dominant for centuries.

The KJV was written in the everyday language of its time, but as language changed it became increasingly difficult to understand. It was revised in the late 19th century, and numerous additional translations into English have been published since then. Many PC(USA) congregations use the Revised Standard Version (RSV) or the New Revised Standard Version (NRSV), though PC(USA) congregations are permitted to use other translations, as determined by the session of the congregation.

Presbyterian practice

The church confesses the Scriptures to be the Word of God written, witnessing to God's self-revelation. Where that Word is read and proclaimed, Jesus Christ the Living Word is present by the inward witness of the Holy Spirit. For this reason the reading, hearing, preaching, and confessing of the Word are central to Christian worship. The session shall ensure that in public worship the Scripture is read and proclaimed regularly in the common language(s) of the particular church.

—Book of Order, W-2.2001

Leaders in the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) can be expected to affirm that "... the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments ... [are] ... by the Holy Spirit, the unique and authoritative witness to Jesus Christ in the Church universal, and God's Word to [them]."

NPC Board of Session

Session Summary

June 18, 2023

Quarterly Dinner meeting

The Clerk determined that a quorum was present.

Rev. Hansen called the meeting to order, and the meeting was opened with prayer by Pastor Hansen.

The Treasurer reviewed the Financial Statements including the Profit and Loss Budget Performance for May 2023, noting that pledge income and non-pledge income year-to-date vs. budget is up, primarily due to building usage. The total received for the Pentecost Offering was $485; NPC retains $194 of the total for youth-based programs. The Treasurer's report was received, with thanks, by the Session.

Following dinner, a discussion was held to prompt reflection on the following questions:

1. Who are our stakeholders? Who has an interest/stake in our congregation remaining open? Who benefits from our presence? If we closed tomorrow, who would be impacted? How does identifying who our stakeholders are help us with our stated mission of "Making Disciples, Making a Difference"?
2. What is our purpose? What does it mean for us to be the body of Christ/members of the body of Christ in our neighborhood(s)/community? How do we live out our call to be the body of Christ in our community?

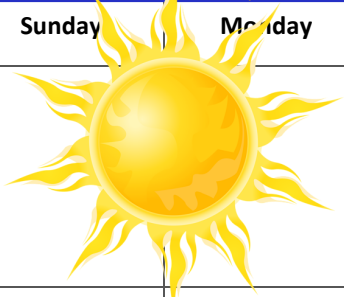

The meeting adjourned in prayer at 7:45 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Cindy Kalweit,
Clerk of Session
